friends

of the Egan Library

A NETWORK OF THE UAS
ALUMNI & FRIENDS ASSOCIATION.

Spring 2018

Edible Books 2018
Photo credit: David Cox

table of contents

03 Third Annual Authors' Reception

04 Kanopy Streaming Video @ the library

06 ScholarWorks@UA

07 Fall 2017 StatSnap

08 Cyril George Display

Issue 03

friends

From Kathy Kolkhorst Ruddy,
President of the Friends of the Egan Library:

I am delighted to be invited to be included in the newsletter! As a patron of this library since it was constructed, I am eager to have the library be highlighted as one of the treasures of Juneau.

Even in our electronic age, there is something comforting about holding a real book, and turning the pages in anticipation of what is to come, and how the story unfolds, or how the author in the non-fiction world wants you to know.

I am an attorney, mostly retired after 30 years of work in Juneau. Now my time can be spent learning things I always wanted to know, but didn't have the time for.

Benefits of Membership:

- A commemorative Friends of the Egan Library lapel pin.
- Invitation to the annual UAS Authors' Reception and other events throughout the year.
- FRIENDS' newsletter highlighting library news and initiatives.
- One time 25% discount on select of University of Alaska Press titles (details at http://uas.alaska.edu/library/give.html)
- Invitations to review and select materials withdrawn from the collection.
- Lifetime members and endowment donors will be recognized in the Honor Roll of Friends (webpage, digital signage in library).

Farewell Megan Watson

Megan has accepted her dream job as Performing Arts Librarian for Reed College in Portland. Megan will be leaving at the end of this academic year. She's very much enjoyed the opportunity to work with students, staff, faculty, and community members at UAS. Megan has been a wonderful addition to UAS faculty, and she will be greatly missed.

friends of the Egan Library | University of Alaska Southeast
http://www.facebook.com/friendsofeganlibrary
11066 Auke Lake Way (BE1), Juneau, AK 99801

THIRD ANNUAL Authors' Reception

Photos from the 2017 Authors' Reception
Photo credit: Seanna O'Sullivan

Friday April 6th, the Friends of the Egan Library (a network of the UAS Alumni & Friends) will host our third annual reception recognizing members of the UAS community publishing scholarly and creative work in 2017. Featuring remarks by Provost Karen Carey, 2017 invited UAS Author Allison Bidlack, and a reading by Emily Wall and Lance X̱'unei Twitchell. Regional Library Director Elise Tomlinson will recognize faculty authors including a few “special” awards.

Join the Friends of the Egan Library, UAS Alumni & Friends, and UAS faculty for conversation, drinks, and appetizers. Invitation to this event is a major benefit of membership in the Friends, and we hope to see you there!

This is a 21 and over event.

UAS EGAN LIBRARY

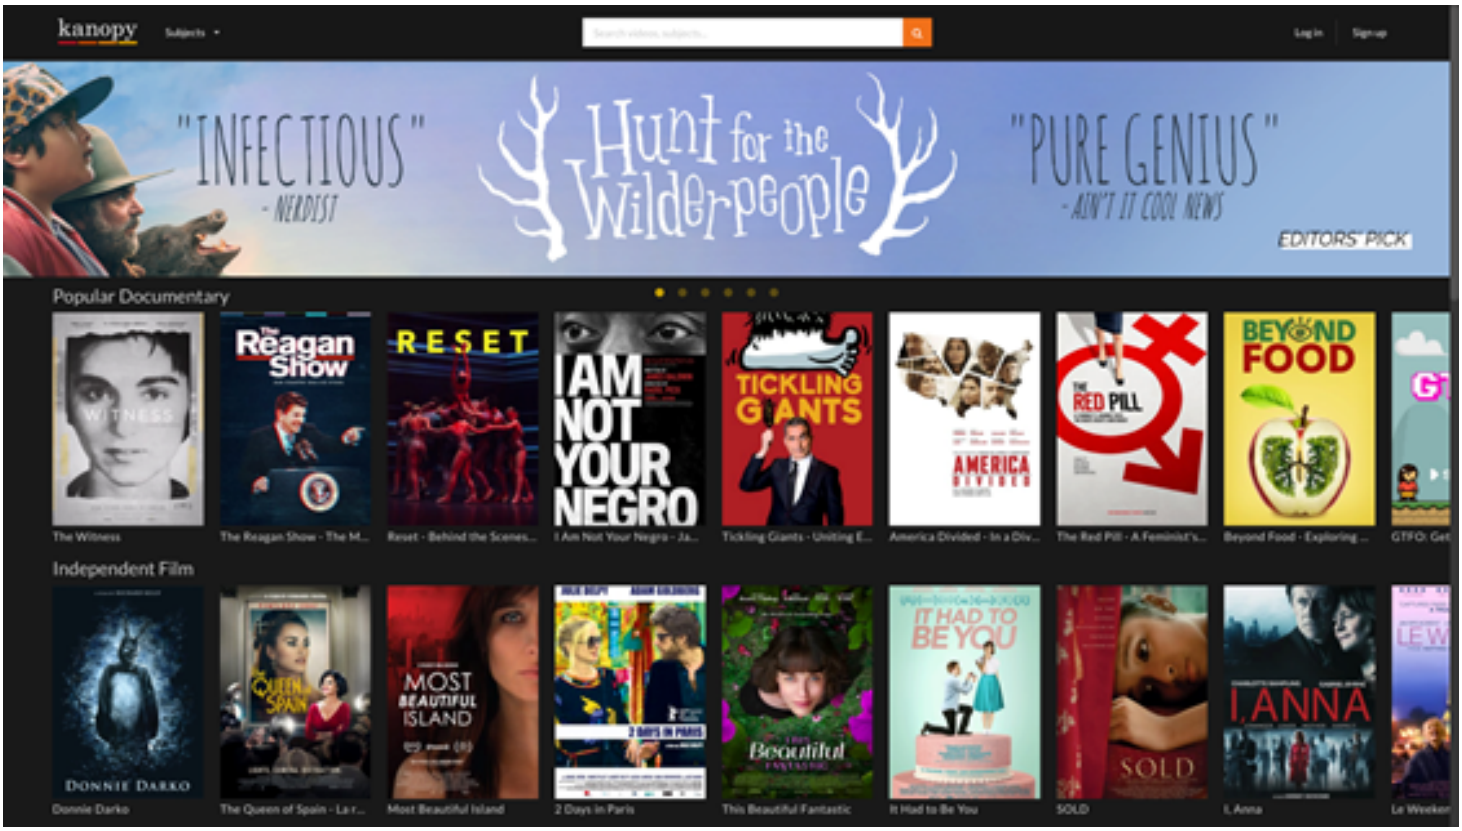
UNIVERSITY of ALASKA SOUTHEAST Alumni & Friends

NOW STREAMING @ UAS

The state and university budget situations have led to the library having to cut resources in recent years. In an effort to strategically invest in a new resource, the library and faculty explored trials of several new databases. After reviewing feedback and use, Librarians settled on adding Kanopy Streaming Videos, a collection of documentaries and famous films.

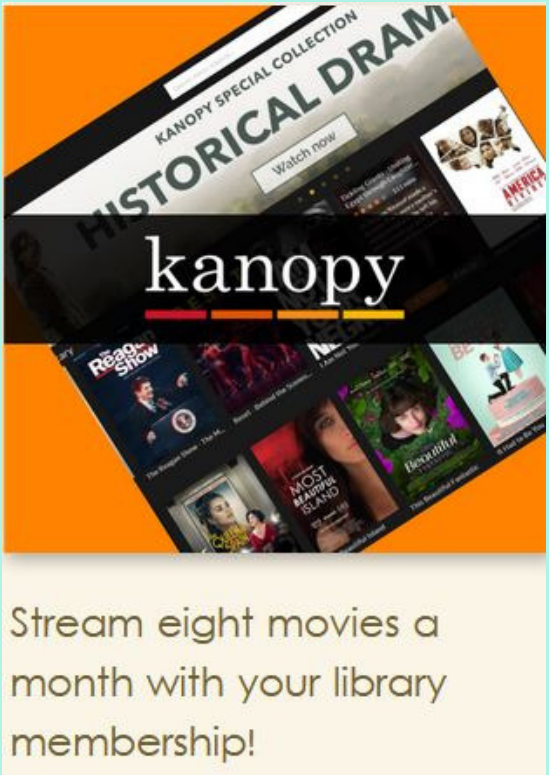
Our arrangement with Kanopy allows us to provide access to all of the titles in the collection for streaming. Only once a title has been viewed several times will the library have to pay for a license to the video. Kanopy is available on campus, and via login off-campus, so it's a great resource for students, faculty, and staff!

uas.kanopy.com



- Includes over 30,000 films from 1,000 top producers such as Criterion Collection, Media Education Foundation, Great Courses, New Day, California Newsreel, Kino Lorber, & PBS.
- Kanopy app is available for all major devices (Roku, iOS, Android, AppleTV, ChromeCast).
- Films come with public performance rights.
- Closed Captioning is available for the majority of the collection (English, Spanish and more for subtitled films).
- All films include transcripts.
- Only films that are viewed 4 times by unique users in a 12 month period will trigger for purchase.
- Create your own personal Kanopy account to build playlists with full videos or clips.
- Films can be embedded in Blackboard for easy student viewing.
- Citations available in APA, MLA and Chicago styles.

Also available for Juneau Public Library card holders - find Kanopy on the JPL website!

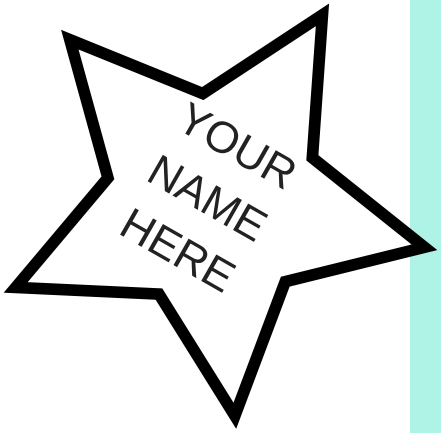


From the JPL site

ScholarWorks@UA Faculty Profiles

There has been increasing activity in the UAS Community and Collections of ScholarWorks@UA institutional repository. We can easily create faculty profile pages highlighting faculty publications. Several honorees from the Authors' Reception now have qualifying works and associated pages in ScholarWorks. Contact Jen Ward to get your faculty profile today! It can be short and sweet or we can include biographical information and links to other websites.

You can also submit your publications here: http://bit.ly/FacultyPubs. We will help figure out if copyright allows for institutional archiving.



Scott Christian is Secondary MAT Program Administrator at the UAS School of Education

Submit a new item to this collection

Recent Submissions

Culturally responsive teaching and student self-efficacy in Alaskan middle schools
Christian, Scott (2017-12)
Culturally responsive teaching may provide practices and dispositions which support closing the achievement gap between minority and Caucasian student populations. For this research, culturally responsive teaching can be ...

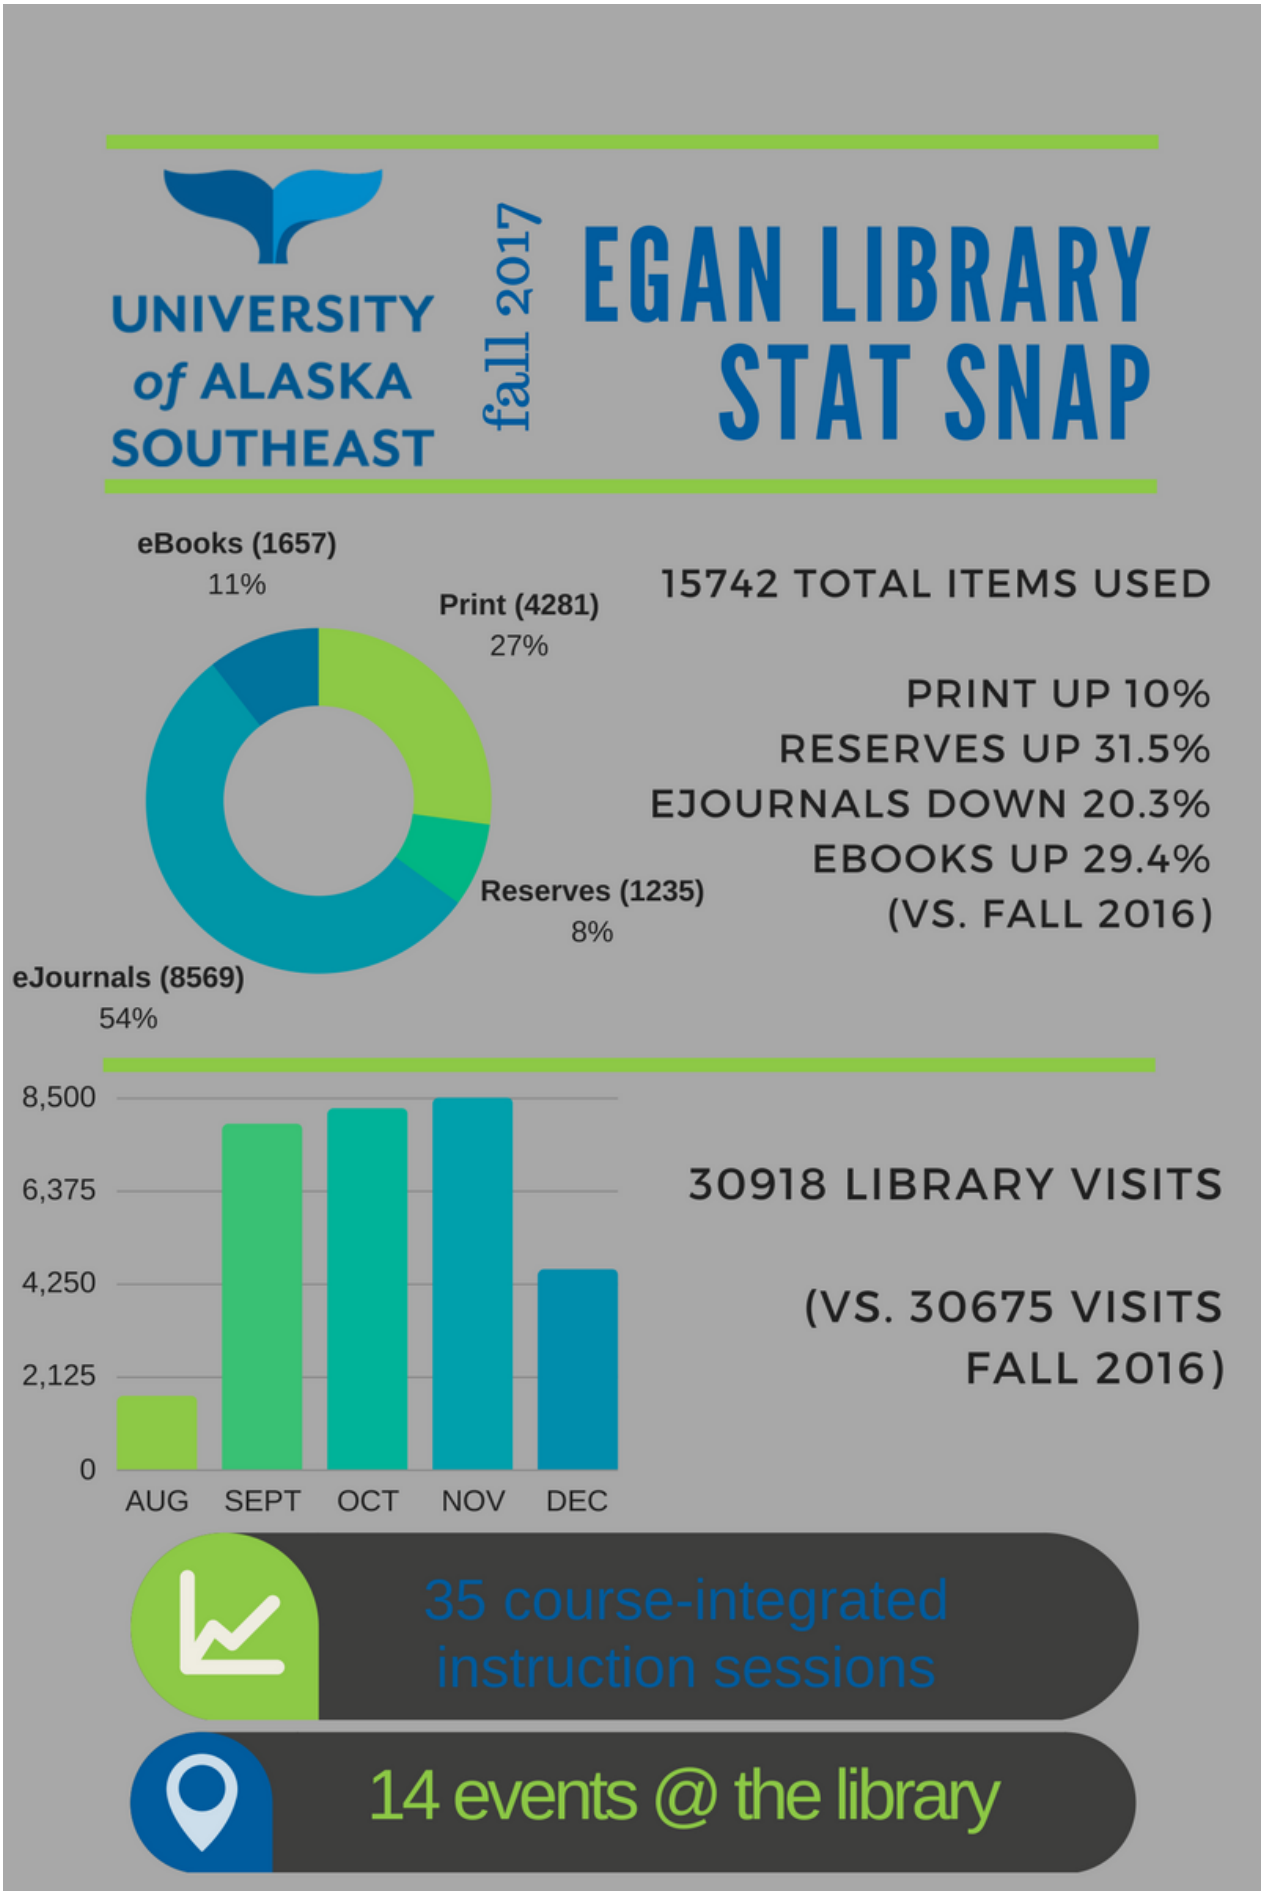
Scott Christian Faculty Profile https://scholarworks.alaska.edu/handle/11122/8150

Emily Wall is a poet and Associate Professor of English at the University of Alaska Southeast. She has been teaching creative writing workshops at the university and in the community for over 20 years. She holds an M.F.A. in poetry and poems have been published in a wide variety of literary journals in the US and Canada, most recently in Prairie Schooner and Alaska Quarterly Review. She has two books published with Salmon Poetry: Liveaboard and Freshly Rooted. Her third book, Breaking Into Air: Birth Poems is forthcoming from Red Hen Press. Emily lives and writes in Douglas, Alaska. She can be found online at www.emily-wall.com

Recent Submissions

Samantha's Births
Wall, Emily (Prairie Schooner, 2016)

Emily Wall Faculty Profile https://scholarworks.alaska.edu/handle/11122/8164



UNIVERSITY of ALASKA SOUTHEAST
fall 2017
EGAN LIBRARY STAT SNAP
eBooks (1657)
11%
Print (4281)
27%
Reserves (1235)
8%
eJournals (8569)
54%
15742 TOTAL ITEMS USED
PRINT UP 10%
RESERVES UP 31.5%
EJOURNALS DOWN 20.3%
EBOOKS UP 29.4%
(VS. FALL 2016)
8,500
6,375
4,250
2,125
0
AUG
SEPT
OCT
NOV
DEC
30918 LIBRARY VISITS
(VS. 30675 VISITS FALL 2016)
35 course-integrated instruction sessions
14 events @ the library

HONORING ḴAALḴÁAWU CYRIL GEORGE, SR.

The library invites you to stop by and look at the recently installed display of photos, narratives, and items relating to the life of Ḵaalḵáawu Cyril George, Sr. The display case is located at the rear of the main floor and is adjacent to the Cyril George Collection. This collection honors indigenous voices and Alaska Native Knowledge in a collection of over 3,000 titles.

Cyril George, Sr. was a culture bearer, orator, teacher, story teller, musician, and boat builder, among his many pursuits. In the case are his guitar, a case of pennies he collected for his grandchildren, a sealing spear, and testimonials to his life.

Kathy Ruddy, a longtime friend of Cyril George and an executor of his estate, loaned us the items in the case and shared knowledge and stories of this remarkable individual. We are grateful to Kathy for her contribution.