

UAS Master Plan Implementation Committee

CODE OF CONDUCT

DATE: 15 April 2019

SUBJECT: MPIC Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct was presented to the MPIC during the January 16, 2019 MPIC meeting and opportunity was provided to make comments. The Code of Conduct was then discussed during the April 11, 2019 MPIC meeting with no objections, and is here formalized to provide guidance to the MPIC.

All members of the MPIC are bound by federal, state and local laws as well as the University of Alaska (UA) Board of Regents Policy. Those representing or acting on behalf of the MPIC should strive for decisions that support:

- The highest standards of integrity in the institution and its operations;
- The university mission to academic excellence and student success;
- Integrity by maintaining an ongoing dedication to honesty and responsibility;
- Trustworthiness by acting in a reliable and dependable manner;
- Fairness by treating others with impartiality;
- Respect by treating others with civility;
- Transparency through rationale and public consideration of multiple viewpoints;
- Stewardship by exercising custodial responsibility for university property and resources;
- Compliance by following State and Federal laws, regulations and UA policies related to their duties and responsibilities;
- Confidentiality by protecting the integrity and security of information known to be or identified as sensitive (e.g. student records, employee files, contract negotiation documents);
- Conflict resolution; and
- A climate of tolerance and trust conducive to the pursuit of the MPIC charge.
