Complete a bachelor's degree on-campus, or in your home community

The Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education is available both on campus, and by distance to freshmen and transfer students in urban and rural Alaska. The bachelor's degree and associated credential meet state and national standards.

Hands-on Experiences

Student supervision is collaborative and highly interactive. Student's senior year consists of a nine-month internship in the schools. In the fall, students complete a practicum experience with their mentor for two and a half days a week, increasing to five days a week in the spring. Students take methods classes throughout that year.

Personalized Learning

Students spend over 1,200 hours in public school classrooms, planning and teaching lessons, and fully participating in all aspects of professional education. Students receive on-site observation and support from their university advisor, regardless of location.
