Alaska's Flag Song

Alaska's Flag

Words by Marie Drake

Music by Elinor Dusenberry

Eight stars of gold, on a field of blue Alaska's flag, may it mean to you the blue of the sea, the evening sky the mountain lakes, and the flowers near by The gold of the early sourdough's dreams the precious gold of the hills and streams the brilliant stars in the northern sky the bear, the dipper, and shining high the great north star with its steady light o'er land and sea, a beacon bright Alaska's flag to Alaskans dear, the simple flag of the last frontier

Congratulations!

On behalf of the UAS Alumni Association, congratulations on achieving a milestone event in your life – earning your degree! Ms. Elizabeth Nelson

2021 Meritorious Service Award Recipient UAS Ketchikan Campus

Elizabeth Nelson has been the artistic or executive director of the First City Players since 1985. Under her leadership, First City Players has become a major venue for the arts in our region. The FCP's play "Fish Pirate's Daughter" a locally written and produced comedy, is the longest running play in Alaska. She has overseen regular seasons of theater in Ketchikan since 1988. Every summer since 1997 and every winter since 1999, she has directed children's summer theater camps for students ages 8 to 17 that have provided arts education to hundreds of local kids.

Her leadership is guided above all by inclusivity and is fueled by an unwavering drive to bring new people into the fold. She is visionary in her outreach to the broader Ketchikan community, and beyond. Her career has been devoted not only to the financial stability and artistic integrity of the organization, but to the social health of our community. Ketchikan is an incredible place for any artist to live, or for anyone who loves the arts. For the better part of thirty years, Elizabeth Nelson has been an enormous part of building that community.

In addition to her work with First City Players, Elizabeth Nelson has served as an adjunct faculty for UAS, teaching theater history, literature, and acting courses. She has been honored by WISH (Women in Safe Homes) as a Woman of Distinction and is the recipient of the Delta Kappa Gamma "Red Apple Award" for her creative energies and outstanding efforts on behalf of children. She has also been recognized for her work with Rotary, Boys & Girls Club, Youth Court, Pioneer Home, Ketchikan Theater Ballet, and the Ketchikan Gateway School District.

UAS is honored to present Elizabeth Nelson with a 2021 Meritorious Service Award for her outstanding leadership and devotion to the arts community of Ketchikan and throughout the region.

Mr. Gordon Jackson

2021 Meritorious Service Award Recipient, Juneau

Over the course of more than 40 years, Gordon Jackson's quiet leadership focused on making rural Alaska a better place to live. Gordon grew up in Kake, Alaska. He attended boarding school as a child, and worked as a commercial fisherman while pursuing his education at Sheldon Jackson College, where he earned an a contract to the AFN, returning it to the original purpose by funding supplemental and enrichment programs for Alaska Natives. As the Vice President of Alaska Federation of Natives, Gordon worked hard to change the education delivery system in rural Alaska. His success ended the BIA Boarding and State Operated Schools through legislation that created rural high schools with school boards.

In the 1980s, Gordon returned to Juneau to advocate for the advancement of Tlingit culture as Vice President of Corporate Development for Sealaska Heritage Foundation, and then as the Native Studies Director at Juneau-Douglas High School. In the 1990s, he was elected President and CEO of the Kake Tribal Corporation, demonstrating seasoned leadership in the local development of seafood processing, tourism, and environmental clean-up industries. In the 21st century, Mr. Jackson has been the manager or director of various projects for the Central Council of Tlingit and Haida Tribes of Alaska and the University of Alaska Southeast.

Gordon Jackson is recognized today with a 2021 Meritorious Service Award for his contributions to rural education, health services, and economic development for Alaska Natives, particularly in his home region of Southeast Alaska.

Associate of Arts degree. He went on to earn a Bachelor of Arts in Education from the University of Alaska Fairbanks, as well as a Master's Degree in Rural Development from UAF.

Early in his professional career, he became Director of the Southeast Alaska Community Action Program and of the Rural Development for the Alaska Department of Community and Regional Affairs in Juneau.

From the mid to late 1970s, Mr. Jackson worked in Anchorage with the Alaska Native Federation in various leadership roles to implement the many programs and initiatives made possible by the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, which became law 50 years ago on December 18, 1971, including lobbying for the passage of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act and the Indian Self-Determination Act.

He was instrumental in changing the Johnson O'Malley Program, which was

Ms. Anastasia Erickson

2021 Student Speaker

Anastasia Erickson has conquered a lot in her education career, one of the most prominent things being the first in her family to get a college degree in the United States. In her time at UAS she has served in leadership roles such as housing resident advisor and as an intern for Tidal Echoes, our literary journal. Anastasia will be graduating today with a Bachelor of English degree.

Ms. Pauline Kookesh Duncan

2021 Commencement Speaker Honorary Doctorate of Education

Pauline Duncan is greatly respected as a teacher and culture bearer. She created an invaluable legacy of teaching materials that merge Tlingit culture and language with Alaska educational standards. Ms. Duncan's achievements reflect her dedication to the exchange of cultural knowledge and her considerable talent and expertise in the field of elementary education. An accomplished classroom teacher, her experience spans over 30 years at all levels from pre-kindergarten to high school. She retired from the Sitka School District in 2005.

Before the mid-nineties, culturally relevant materials for young children did not exist, and Pauline took it upon herself to create them. The result of this work is found in beautiful books and posters which have become a cornerstone resource for schools meeting the Alaska Cultural Standards for Students. They are widely used in schools throughout Tlingit traditional homelands.

Her book Raven Stories, part of the "Baby Raven Reads" series, was recognized as groundbreaking work by the National Library of Congress Literacy Awards Best Practice as an Honoree, one of 15 programs in the world to receive the honor in 2017. The series is a foundation for community early childhood events that targets early learning and literacy strategies. Ms. Duncan's books encourage children to read, encourage parents to read to children, and pass down traditional stories so they are not lost. Ms. Duncan's books are carried in bookstores throughout Alaska and are very popular with Alaska residents and visitors.

The importance of Ms. Duncan's work is widely recognized. She has received many awards and honors, including Alaska Bilingual Educator of the Year from the Alaska Association for Bilingual Education, the Alaska Federation of Natives President's Award, and the Sitka Tribe of Alaska Citizen of the Year. She was also the first recipient of the SheeAtika Corporation Charlie Joseph Culture and Heritage Award. We honor Ms. Duncan for her vision, dedication and her lasting impact. She receives an Honorary Doctorate of Education as a part of this ceremony.
