

FREN 101 Elementary French I

Upon successfully completing this course students will be able to:

1. Initiate and participate in basic communicative tasks in French in a culturally appropriate manner using the présent and the passé composé. In addition to descriptive tasks, students will be able to compare and contrast, offer advice, talk about the past, and express plans for the future.
2. Acquire the basic grammar and vocabulary necessary to talk, listen, read and write about themselves and the most common aspects of their daily lives in French (specifically in campus, café, home and recreational environments).
3. Comprehend short written texts and audiovisual materials, in French, about topics that are familiar to them.
4. Give examples of the cultural, geographic, linguistic, and historical diversity of French-speaking communities.

FREN 102 Elementary French II

Upon successfully completing this course students will be able to:

1. Initiate and participate in basic communicative tasks in French in a culturally appropriate manner using the présent, passé composé, impératif, imparfait, conditionnel and futur simple. In addition to descriptive tasks, students will be able to compare and contrast, offer advice, talk about the past, and express plans for the future.
2. Acquire the basic grammar and vocabulary needed to talk, listen, read and write about themselves and the most common aspects of their daily lives in French (specifically food, health, and urban and rural environments)
3. Comprehend short written texts and audiovisual materials, in French, about topics that are familiar to them.
4. Give examples of the cultural, geographic, linguistic, and historical diversity of French-speaking communities.