

UNIVERSITY of ALASKA SOUTHEAST

Student Government and the Department of Arts and Sciences

DEADLINE: February 1, 2023 (SUBMISSIONS OPEN: December 1, 2022)

Eligibility:

Summit will consider submissions from any current undergraduate student taking courses through any of the three UAS campuses.

Accepted Works:

Due to the nature of the journal, Summit will only be accepting academic works that meet the following criteria:

- Qualify as academic (no creative works)
- Do not exceed 15 pages (double spaced), excluding references
- Present a clear thesis

Scoring:

Each submission will be judged with the same rubric, which analyzes each paper for how well they reflect scholarly writing and the UAS core competencies of:

- Information literacy
- Critical thinking
- Professional behavior reflected in writing

Essay Contest:

The paper that exhibits the strongest mastery of the core competencies will be the recipient of the UAS Ernestine Hayes Award for Excellence in Essay Writing, be featured with a special spread in the journal, and win a $250 prize.

How to Submit:

1. Fill out the attached cover sheet (on the second page of this file)
2. Write a short author bio (50-80 words) in the third person and include on a separate page at the beginning of your submission
3. Ensure that your essay is in Times New Roman, size 12 font, double-spaced
4. Send an electronic word.doc, .docx, or Pages document to the Writing Center email: uas.writingcenter@alaska.edu. In the subject line of your email, please include "Writing Center Journal Submission." We will not accept .pdf documents or physical copies.

Questions:

Contact any of the tutors in the Writing Center by emailing us at uas.writingcenter@alaska.edu, or by giving us a call at (907) 796-6188.
