

UNIVERSITY of ALASKA SOUTHEAST

Student Government and the Department of Arts and Sciences

SUBMISSIONS OPEN: December 1, 2023

DEADLINE: February 1, 2024

Eligibility:

Summit will consider submissions from any current undergraduate student taking courses through any of the three UAS campuses.

Accepted Works:

Due to the nature of the journal, Summit will only be accepting academic works that meet the following criteria:

- Qualify as academic (no creative works)
- Do not exceed 15 pages (double spaced), excluding references
- Present a clear thesis

Scoring:

Each submission will be judged with the same rubric, which analyzes each paper for how well they reflect scholarly writing and the UAS core competencies of:

- Information literacy
- Critical thinking
- Professional behavior reflected in writing

Essay Contest:

The paper that exhibits the strongest mastery of the core competencies will be the recipient of the UAS Ernestine Hayes Award for Excellence in Essay Writing, be featured with a special spread in the journal, and win a monetary prize.

How to Submit:

1. Fill out the attached cover sheet (on the second page of this file)
2. Write a short author bio (50-80 words) in the third person and include on a separate page at the beginning of your submission
3. Ensure that your essay is in Times New Roman, size 12 font, double-spaced
4. Send an electronic word.doc, .docx, or Pages document to the Writing Center email: uas.writingcenter@alaska.edu. In the subject line of your email, please include "Writing Center Journal Submission." We will not accept .pdf documents or physical copies.

Questions:

Contact any of the tutors in the Writing Center by emailing us at uas.writingcenter@alaska.edu, or by giving us a call at (907) 796-6188.

UNIVERSITY of ALASKA SOUTHEAST

Student Government and the Department of Arts and Sciences

2023-2024

Summit: the Writing Center's Undergraduate Research Journal

Cover Page

Name _____

Phone _____

Email _____

Essay Title _____

Eligible submissions include expository and persuasive essays, academic research, and scholarly papers written for a UAS class in any department. Sorry, no creative fiction or poetry.

To verify that this essay has been submitted to a UAS class, please list the course number and name of the professor. Please sign and then scan or photograph this cover page and attach it to your submission email.

Faculty printed name _____

Course name, number, and term _____

Student signature* _____

*By signing, you are agreeing that this piece meets all of the submission guidelines

as stated on the Writing Center website: <http://www.uas.alaska.edu/juneau/writing-center/index.html>

Email submissions are due to the Writing Center

(uas.writingcenter@alaska.edu)

by midnight on February 1th, 2024