About Interlibrary Loan

Through a network connecting the Egan Library with libraries nationwide as well as abroad, library patrons are able to get materials in varied formats for research and recreational purposes. The Egan Library's ILL Service is guided by the National Interlibrary Loan Code of the U.S. (American Library Association) and abides by copyright laws. We encourage patrons to use this service in a responsible way; exploring local resources first and then abiding by the Egan Library's ILL policies as well as those of the lending library. See the ILL FAQ page for further information.

Textbook Affordability Project

Open UAS

Egan Library » OER

OPEN UAS
OPEN EDUCATION

Open UAS is a textbook affordability and Open Educational Resources (OER) initiative of the UAS Egan Library and the Center for Excellence in Learning and Teaching \(C.E.L.T.\). We advocate for open education on campus, provide faculty development and support in the creation and use of OER in the classroom. Faculty use of OER signals an awareness of rising textbook prices and an effort to select course materials with student cost and student success in mind.

Faculty Champions

UAS is a proud member of the Open Textbook Network \(OTN\), an active community of over 1,000 campuses across the country that promote access, affordability, and student success through the use of open textbooks. Additionally, UAS faculty have access to the Open Textbook Library, a collection of over 800 openly-licensed textbooks across 14 subject areas, many of which have been peer reviewed by faculty from OTN member institutions.

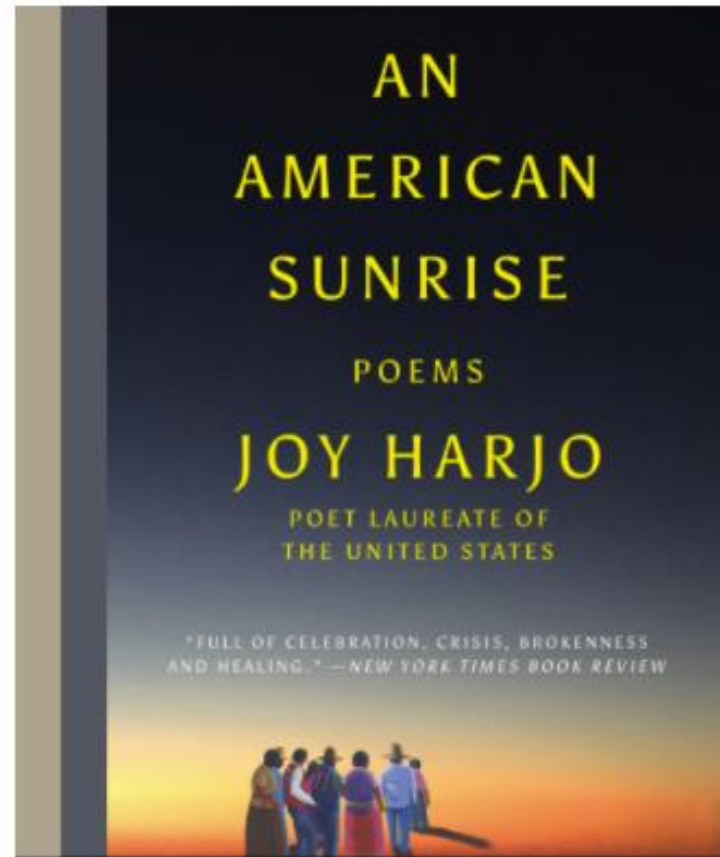

Strategic Planning

Open UAS has developed the following documents to outline short-term goals and begin visioning long-term strategic initiatives. Comments are invited on both documents.
