Assessment of Program Learning Outcomes:

1	Skills of Teaching Observation Tool: candidates are observed teaching using this rubric at least twice during the student teaching internship. This rubric measures candidate performance in InTASC standards 1-10. More information on instrument can be found here: https://www.ndacte.org/stot-presentation-caep-march-2017/
2	Teacher Work Sample: Candidates complete this portfolio assessment at the end of student teaching in order to illustrate mastery of program learning outcomes and InTASC standards 1-8. More information on this instrument can be found here: https://www.wku.edu/rtwsc/resources.php
3	Praxis II Content Exam: In order to demonstrate content proficiency, candidates must complete the Praxis content exam in accordance with Alaska State Policy, in alignment with measuring proficiency in InTASC 4, 5, and program learning outcomes. More information on content testing requirements can be found here: https://education.alaska.gov/teachercertification/contentareaexams
4	Unit Plan: Prior to proceeding to the final semester of the program, candidates must demonstrate appropriate progress towards program learning outcomes through the development of an original unit plan. This assessment is graded on a rubric focusing on InTASC standards 1-8.
5	Professional Characteristics Assessment: Candidates are assessed on their professional dispositions on a Professional Characteristics Assessment that is completed twice by their host teacher. This includes one formative and one summative assessment during student teaching. This assessment focuses on InTASC standards 9 & 10.
6	Common Metrics Surveys: This set of surveys has been adopted to measure candidate satisfaction, their success in transitioning to teaching, and feedback from their supervisors as they move into teaching positions. These measure program learning outcomes after candidates complete the program and provide an opportunity for continual program improvement. More information on this survey tool can be found at https://www.nextteachers.org/surveys-1
