The document contains a calendar for the University of Alaska Southeast, spanning from August 2022 to May 2023. It includes the dates for the Spring and Fall Semesters, holidays, and important academic events such as commencement and important deadlines. The calendar is structured to show dates for specific events and academic periods, with note that some dates may be subject to change. The faculty academic year runs from August 14, 2022, through May 13, 2023.