10. LTI Integrations and Blackboard SaaS (Jonas)
  - a. H5P requires LTI integration (no cost): H5P is a tool for building HTML5 based interactive learning objects (many of these are licenced Creative Commons by creators for easy reuse by other instructors). Coming Soon is an OER Hub for CC-licensed interactive learning objects.
  - b. Hypothes.is (no cost at moment due to Covid): a collaborative web annotation tool. Jonas is currently using this in his LS 220 online course this semester and has created a guide for other instructors interested in using it. The LTI integration would enable annotation of pdfs and docs hosted within the BB environment.
11. Other Business
  - a. Revisit TLTR Charge (Subcommittee) Jonas will recruit an ad-hoc committee to work on this in early 2021.
